

Havana Outdoor Floor

Joseph Forakis
2005

The outdoor version of a Foscarini bestseller, with a diffuser formed by a single piece of moulded polyethylene. Ideal for outdoor spaces, it enhances them with a presence that fits perfectly into the setting. After dark it boosts the possibility of perception of outdoor zones, making their size and boundaries clear. Arranged in a group, the lamp creates luminous scenarios with an almost arboreal character.
